Charles H. Dater Foundation
Board of Directors and Officers

Bruce A. Krone
President, Secretary and Director

Bruce A. Krone is an original member of the Dater Foundation board. He attended Walnut Hills High School. He graduated from Ohio State University with a bachelor’s degree in Finance and earned a master’s in Business Administration from Xavier University. He earned his law degree from the University of Dayton, focusing on estate planning and taxation. He joined his father in the firm of Eichel and Krone in 1982. His practice areas include estate planning, taxation, real estate, business law, wills, trust law and probate. He is Board Certified by the Ohio State Bar Association in estate planning, trust and probate law. He serves on committees of the Cincinnati, Ohio, Kentucky and American Bar Associations, and is active in community and church-related activities. He and his wife Libby have two children and live in Cincinnati’s Hyde Park area.

John D. Silvati
Vice President and Director

John D. Silvati is an original member of the Dater Foundation board. A native Cincinnati, he graduated from Purcell High School and Xavier University, earning his Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration while on a football scholarship. He fulfilled his college ROTC commitment by serving two years as an artillery officer in the U.S. Army in the early 1960s. After the Army, he joined Merrill Lynch as a financial consultant. He left to join another firm in the early 1970s, but returned to Merrill in 1974 as a Vice President. He was resident manager of the firm’s Blue Ash office at the time he retired in 1997. He has served as a board member of Ensemble Theatre of Cincinnati and Kenwood County Club, and has served on the Session Board of Indian Hill Church. He and his wife Linda have six children and 13 grandchildren. They live in East Walnut Hills.

Roger L. Ruhl
Vice President and Director

Roger L. Ruhl was elected to the Foundation board in December 2006. A native Cincinnati, he graduated from St. Xavier High, attended Xavier University and completed his bachelor’s degree at West Virginia University, where he was sports information director while still an undergraduate. Director Emeritus

Dorothy G. Krone

Vice President and Director

Dorothy G. Krone retired as a director and officer of the Foundation and assumed the role of director emeritus in January 2005. She had been an active member of the Foundation’s board since 1995, bringing a lifetime of community and charitable involvement and experience to the organization. Upon retiring, Mrs. Krone said, “This has been a very rewarding experience. Most of all, I treasure the memories of visits to grant recipients and seeing first hand how these dedicated nonprofit organizations stretched our grants dollars to do many good things for the children of Greater Cincinnati.” A life-long Cincinnatian, she grew up in the fifth floor and attended Walnut Hills High School. She earned a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration at the University of Cincinnati. She worked briefly for the Cincinnati Board of Education after college. As a full-time mother of four children, she made time for extensive volunteer commitments. She was a reading tutor at Kilgour School, a Cub Scout den mother, a Brownie leader, a Sunday school teacher at Knox Presbyterian Church, and a preschool teacher at Hyde Park Community Church. She also served as a volunteer for the Cincinnati Art Museum, and the Hill and Dale Garden Club. After her children were grown, she returned to the University of Cincinnati and earned a temporary teacher certificate. She is the widow of Paul Krone, a founding member of the Foundation’s board who died in 1995. She lives in the Hyde Park area of Cincinnati.

Former Directors and Officers

Paul W. Krone, 1925-1995

Director and President 1985-1995

Paul W. Krone was a founding Board member and served as the Foundation’s first President from 1985 until his death in 1995. Krone was born in Cincinnati and was a life-long resident. He graduated from Walnut Hills High School and the University of Cincinnati, where his involvement in Phi Delta Theta fraternity continued throughout his life. He earned his law degree from Salmon P. Chase College of Law. He practiced law for 13 years before starting Eichel and Krone in 1971. His law practice focused on estate planning and business law. His son Bruce Krone joined him in the practice in 1982. Krone is survived by his wife Dorothy, who served as a Foundation director and officer from 1995 to 2004, and their four children.

Stanley J. (Jack) Frank, Jr.

Treasurer and Director

Stanley J. “Jack” Frank is an original member of the Foundation board. He was born and raised in Cincinnati and graduated from St. Xavier High School, where he played football and ran track. He was a dean’s list student at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., and graduated with a bachelor’s degree in Economics. He earned his Master’s Business Administration at Xavier University. He joined Merrill Lynch after college and began a career as a financial advisor that would last 45 years. He taught adult education courses in securities and investments at two area high schools. He has been active in civic organizations, serving on the boards of the Cincinnati Speech and Hearing Center and Georgetown University Alumni Association, and on the boards and as president of Hyde Park Tennis Club and St. Xavier High Alumni Association. He and his late wife Margaret raised six children. He lives in East Walnut Hills.

Amanda Prebble Lenhart

Director

Amanda Prebble Lenhart was elected to the Foundation board in December 2006. She is a partner with the law firm of Dinsmore & Shohl LLP. Her practice is focused in the area of litigation principally involving business matters, trusts and civil fiduciary issues. After earning a Bachelor of Philosophy from Miami University in 1997, she received her Juris Doctorate, with honors, from the University of Cincinnati College of Law in 2000. She is a member of the Potter Stewart Inn of Court, was the recipient of the YWCA Women of Achievement “Rising Star 2005” award and completed the YWCA Rising Star Board Leadership Program. Ms. Lenhart lives in the Cincinnati neighborhood of Ivy Hills.

with Hogan, Nolan & Stites, a Cincinnati marketing, advertising and public relations firm; and 13 years as Vice President of the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce. He established a marketing communications consultancy in 2000 and provides marketing and public relations counsel and services to a limited number of small and mid-size clients. He has served on the boards of the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, the Greater Cincinnati Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Downtown Council (including two terms as president), Seven Hills Savings and Cornerstone Bank. He lives in Monfort Heights. He has a daughter.

The Foundation continued to promote its grant recipients and encouraged them to leverage their Dater grant as well. The Foundation’s web site featured success stories and photos from grant recipients, helping spread the word about the good work being done at these nonprofit organizations. News releases announcing new grants were posted regularly. Foundation grants to Cincinnati Public Radio and CET (WCET) provided an opportunity to use broadcast announcements to salute grant recipients, thereby helping them increase their visibility and attract additional support.

The Foundation’s first full year using a web-based, online grant application process was a smashing success, based on feedback from grant applicants. Grant applicants advise that the MicroEdge Essential Gifts system has significantly reduced the time spent preparing and submitting grant applications and grant evaluation reports. Foundation directors find that they are able to be more thorough and efficient in reviewing applications, evaluations and other documents, which are available 24/7. For those unable to use the online system, the Foundation is able to accommodate. Also, the Preliminary Grant Proposal process remains in place for grant seekers to get preliminary feedback about a request before they spend undue time on a formal application not likely to be approved. The Foundation’s web site features detailed information about its grantmaking process.

The Foundation is committed to Enriching the Lives of Children. Its mission: to make grants to nonprofit organizations in the Greater Cincinnati area to carry out projects and programs that benefit children and focus in the areas of arts/culture, education, healthcare, social services and other community needs.

Businessman and philanthropist Charles H. Dater (1912-1993), a fourth generation Cincinnatian, established the Foundation in 1985 to ensure that funding for worthwhile community programs would continue after his death. The Foundation honors the memory and preserves the philanthropic commitment of Charles and his ancestors, who dedicated work and business acumen over 150 years provided them with the opportunity to share their success with their community.

Directors and officers play an active role in the work of the Foundation, which has no full-time staff members. They perform the work of staff, reviewing hundreds of grant requests each year. They make site visits to current and potential grant recipients, monitor how grant dollars are being spent, and seek new grant applicants whose goals coincide with those of the Foundation.

The Foundation made 114 grants totaling $1,597,950 in the grant/fiscal year (September 2010 to August 2011). Grants ranged from $1,000 to $132,500. The median grant was $10,000 and the average grant was $14,017. Over 2,100 grants have been awarded to nearly 400 organizations over the last twenty-six years.

The Foundation’s grantmaking increased by six percent in 2010-11, but remained below the level prior to the recent economic downturn. Assets were at $39 million in August 2011. The Foundation does not generate revenues through programs or gifts, so its grantmaking is tied to investment performance. The Foundation relies on a grantmaking percent of better than 40 percent to average of 20 new organizations in the prior three years, grants were made to only four new grantees in 2009-10 and five new grantees in 2010-11. The focus narrowed to providing continuing, though frequently reduced, support to prior grant recipients. Grant applicants were encouraged to examine their operations, focus on programs providing the most impact, and consider eliminating marginal programs.

The Foundation expanded its support for programs that provided multiple benefits. Good win-win examples are Starfire, Children Inc.’s Service Learning program, Xavier’s Summer Internship program, UC Med Mentors, Peaselee Neighborhood Center and the Urban Health Project … in addition to the benefits accruing to those who receive a service, those who provide a service learn the importance and value of giving. They have an opportunity to experience philanthropy. The Foundation also looked favorably on grant recipients that were successful in finding, energizing and making good use of volunteer support.

Beech Acres Parenting Center - $5,000
Beech Acres has served children and families in Greater Cincinnati for 160 years. Programs are based on the guiding principle that parents, and other dedicated adults filling that role, all want the best for their children, and all need education, support and guidance in raising their children to achieve their unique potential. A Dater grant supports initiatives in Conflict, a program designed to alleviate and/or reduce the anger and stress associated with divorce, separation and/or custody issues while improving the conditions in which children are raised. The program model is unique in that parents meet separately from their children, who are divided in groups by age. The concurrent sessions teach both parents and children effective, proven techniques to increase problem solving and communication skills, resulting in healthier family dynamics.

Beech Acres Parenting Center 6881 Beechmont Avenue, Cincinnati, OH 45230 www.BeechAcres.org Project: Families in Conflict Dater Grant: $5,000 (March, 2011)

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Butler County - $5,000
Big Brothers Big Sisters believes that inherent in every child is the ability to succeed and thrive in life. BBBS makes meaningful, monitored matches between adult volunteers and children, developing positive relationships that have a direct and lasting effect on the lives of young people. A Dater grant helped children who have an incarcerated parent. Children of prisoners face extreme adversity in their lives. They are at a higher risk of substance abuse, early pregnancy and becoming a high school drop-out. Matching them with committed, caring adult mentors builds protective factors that help children grow to become successful adults.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Butler County 5539 Eureka Drive, Hamilton, OH 45011 www.bbbshalfar.org Project: Mentoring Children of Prisoners Dater Grant: $5,000 (July, 2011)

Boy Scouts of America, Dan Beard Council - $10,000
The Dan Beard Council prepares over 33,000 youth in Greater Cincinnati to make ethical and moral choices fit with the university mission to form students intellectually, morally and spiritually, with rigor and compassion, toward lives of solidarity, service, and success since program fosters young people’s commitment to community service by placing college students in full-time service internships each summer. Twenty college interns provided approximately 5,500 hours of service to 19 Cincinnati area agencies in 2011. A Dater grant funded stipends and expenses for seven interns who worked in agencies that serve children. These interns, who were placed at Cincinnati Recreation Commission, Kennedy Heights Art Center, Peaslee Neighborhood Center, Project Connect, Imago Earth Center and VISIONS Community Services, served approximately 150 youth each week of the internship for contact hours totaling more than 40,000.

YMCA of Greater Cincinnati - $10,000
The YMCA promotes health in mind, body and spirit through programs that focus on youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. The Applied Behavioral Analysis Preschool and Autism Summer Learning Program is tailored to meet the unique educational, health and developmental needs of children with autism spectrum disorder. Specifically, the Summer Learning Program allows children with autism to experience the adventure and excitement of summer camp while maintaining the structure, therapy and academics the children need to learn and grow. A Dater grant allowed children to enroll in this program at the Clifford Family Branch location at reduced costs, thus lowering the financial burden on 40 families.

YWCA of Greater Cincinnati - $10,000
Founded in 1868, the YWCA of Greater Cincinnati is the fifth oldest local association in the U.S. A Dater grant funded participation in YWCA Girls Inc., which targets girls ages 9-18 in Hamilton and Clermont County schools. Overall goals are for girls to: acquire knowledge/skills to take charge of and make informed, thoughtful decisions about their sexual health; learn to manage money, invest, and begin to develop an appreciation for global economics; explore and critically decipher the media portrayal of girls/women and its impact on societal expectations and individual choices;

Charles H. Dater, 1912-1993
Philanthropist, Businessman, Cincinnati
Charles Hisxon Dater was born in Cincinnati in 1912. A brother, the only other child of Charles Henry Dater and his wife Ona, died as an infant 12 years before Charles was born.

Charles grew up in Northside and attended North Presbyterian Church. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati and pursued a master’s in business administration at Harvard University. He served as an officer in the U.S. Army during World War II.

His father died when Charles was only 17 years old, and he was thrust into management of the family’s holdings at an early age. After his mother died, his full focus became the family’s investments and residential land development in Western Hills, where he lived in a modest three-bedroom ranch home. He died in 1993.

Many Greater Cincinnati institutions and charities benefited from his generosity through the years, both before and after the establishment of the Foundation; but Charles preferred that his gifts be anonymous and unrecognized.

He made the decision in the mid-1980s to establish a foundation to preserve the family’s memory and to ensure that funding through grants for worthwhile community programs would continue.

The Dater family and its ties to Cincinnati date back four generations. Charles’s great-grandfather, Adam Dater, emigrated from Germany and settled in Cincinnati in 1830. Hard work and business acumen were hallmarks of succeeding generations of Dater family members, who successfully leveraged their success with their community. A Cincinnati high school and Montessori school are named in honor of Gilbert Dater, grandfather of Charles.

Grant Recipient Profiles

The Foundation welcomes the opportunity to salute the good work being done by the nonprofit organizations that received grants in 2010-11. Profiles on the following pages provide information about each grant recipient, the project funded by the Foundation, and the impact being made. Most organizations have web sites that provide more information about their activities.

A Kid Again - $10,000

Children with life threatening illnesses and their families are the focus of A Kid Again, which provides healing times of respite through filled group activities and destination events (“adventures”). The year-round adventures foster laughter, joy, normalcy and supportive networking opportunities. Children, siblings and parents are offered a cost-free occasion to enjoy quality time together and to create lasting memories. A Dater grant helped with the Holiday Party Adventure, which was held at Crossroads Church and hosted 294 families and 335 hurting individuals. The 2010 party provided dinner, games, entertainment, photos with Santa and family photos to help preserve the memories. Each child received a gift.

American Association - $10,000

Making an everyday difference in the quality of life for all people with diabetes is the Association’s goal. This happens through funding diabetes research programs and providing education and advocacy efforts. Camp Korelitz gives children living with diabetes the opportunity to meet and learn from adult counselors and other children with diabetes who have gone through many of the same experiences. They learn ways to cope with the disease. Both children and their parents say one of the greatest benefits of attending diabetes camp is the opportunity to be apart of a group. Financial challenges are often encountered by families in order to keep their children with diabetes alive and well. A Dater grant funded camp scholarships for 30 disadvantaged children in 2011.

Grant Application Process

The Dater Foundation’s online, web-based Grant Request/Application and Grant Evaluation Report process is designed to make the grant seeking process easier and more time efficient for nonprofit organizations. A customized grant application format mirrors the Foundation’s previous hard-copy format. Applicants are directed to fill in specific fields and upload certain documents. Additional documents (newsletters, news articles, annual reports, etc.) may be uploaded as well.

Grantmaking Focus, Process and Timing

The Foundation makes grants to private, nonprofit organizations and public agencies in Greater Cincinnati for programs that benefit children in the region in the areas of arts/culture, education, healthcare, social services and other community needs. Greater Cincinnati is defined as the eight-county area made up of the countries of Hamilton, Brown and Clermont in Ohio; Boone, Kenton and Campbell in Kentucky; and Dearborn in Indiana. The Foundation does not make grants to individuals, for scholarships for individuals, for debt reduction, and, with rare exception, for capital fund projects. Grants are usually made for one year and subsequent grants for an extended or ongoing program are based on an evaluation of prior results. Multiple grants to an organization in the Foundation’s same fiscal year (September through August) are possible, but rare. The Foundation looks favorably on applications that leverage a grant to secure additional funding and resources.

Grant applicants are strongly urged to review the Grant Guidelines before initiating a grant application. This will help grant seekers better understand the Foundation’s background and grantmaking priorities, thereby improving the likelihood of approval for some and saving valuable time for others whose application may not be consistent with the Foundation’s focus.

Applicants may want to consider submitting a brief “pre-application summary submission.” Details are in the Grants section of the Foundation’s web site. The Grant Request/Application process requires about 60 days from the time an application is received until a grant request is approved or declined. Once an application is approved, funds are dispersed in about two weeks.

Arthritis Foundation - $5,000

The Arthritis Foundation improves lives of people with arthritis or at risk for arthritis through research, education, advocacy, disease management and exercise programs. With positive intervention and empowerment of the families involved, these chronic diseases can govern the lives of both families and children impacted by arthritis. A Dater grant supported the SAK (Supporting Arthritis Kids) Backpack Program in partnership with Cincinnati Children’s Hospital Medical Center. The purpose of the program is to provide educational materials, resources and support to local children with juvenile arthritis and their families.

ArtWorks - $10,000

Founded in 1996, ArtWorks is a nonprofit arts organization that connects artists of all ages with opportunities in the arts through inspiring apprenticeships, community partnerships, and public art. ArtWorks’ Summer Program provides quality job training and employment for a diverse group of young people ages 14-21 each year in meaningful arts projects that make a positive impact on participants’ educational, vocational and personal development. In 2011, a Dater grant supported Room By Room, a project partnership between ArtWorks and Ronald McDonald House Charities. ArtWorks hired a team of 15 Apprentice Artists and four professional artists to create colorful and inspiring works of art for guest rooms in the newly expanded Ronald McDonald House. The team created 124 mixed-media works of art that were installed in the guest rooms in order to enliven the space, promote creativity and healing, and make each room feel like a home away from home.

fit with the university mission to form students intellectually, morally and spiritually, with rigor and compassion, toward lives of solidarity, service, and success. Since program fosters young people’s commitment to community service by placing college students in full-time service internships each summer. Twenty college interns provided approximately 5,500 hours of service to 19 Cincinnati area agencies in 2011. A Dater grant funded stipends and expenses for seven interns who worked in agencies that serve children. These interns, who were placed at Cincinnati Recreation Commission, Kennedy Heights Art Center, Peaslee Neighborhood Center, Project Connect, Imago Earth Center and VISIONS Community Services, served approximately 150 youth each week of the internship for contact hours totaling more than 40,000.

YMCA of Greater Cincinnati - $10,000

The YMCA promotes health in mind, body and spirit through programs that focus on youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. The Applied Behavioral Analysis Preschool and Autism Summer Learning Program is tailored to meet the unique needs of children with autism spectrum disorder. Specifically, the Summer Learning Program allows children with autism to experience the adventure and excitement of summer camp while maintaining the structure, therapy and academics the children need to learn and grow. A Dater grant allowed children to enroll in this program at the Clippard Family Branch location at reduced costs, thus lowering the financial burden on 40 families.

Charles H. Dater, 1912-1993

Philanthropist, Businessman, Cincinnati

Charles Hisxon Dater was born in Cincinnati in 1912. A brother, the other child of Charles Henry Dater and his wife Ona, died as an infant 12 years before Charles was born.

Charles grew up in Northside and attended North Presbyterian Church. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati and pursued a master’s in business administration at Harvard University. He served as an officer in the U.S. Army during World War II.

His father died when Charles was only 17 years old, and he was thrust into management of the family’s holdings at an early age. After his mother died, his full-time focus became the family’s investments and residential land development in Western Hills, where he lived in a modest three-bedroom ranch home. He died in 1993.

Many Greater Cincinnati institutions and charities benefited from his generosity through the years, both before and after the establishment of the Foundation; but Charles preferred that his gifts be anonymous and unrecognized.

He made the decision in the mid-1980s to establish a foundation to preserve the family’s memory and to ensure that funding through grants for worthwhile community programs would continue.

The Dater family and its ties to Cincinnati date back four generations. Charles’s great-grandfather, Adam Dater, emigrated from Germany and settled in Cincinnati in 1830. Hard work and business acumen were hallmarks of succeeding generations of Dater family members, who generously supported their success with their community. A Cincinnati high school and Montessori school are named in honor of Gilbert Dater, grandfather of Charles.

CET - Greater Cincinnati Television Educational Foundation - $20,000 CET (WCET), the first licensed educational television organization in the nation, positively contributes to the quality of life in Greater Cincinnati. Research has indicated nearly half of America’s children are not prepared to succeed when they enter kindergarten. Moreover, children living in poverty enter kindergarten at an especially high disadvantage, particularly in literacy skills. A Dater grant for children’s programming, both on air and outreach. An example is Raising Readers, launched at John P. Parker and Pleasant Hill Academy schools. Learning time is any time, as children throughout the day are impacted on a variety of media platforms and devices with engaging activities that will help build reading skills. Raising Readers’ platform for learning to read, the local nonprofit, friendship is created that lead to a better understanding of people with disabilities. Starfire participants are seen for their gifts and passions. More positive communities and more compassionate citizens are the net result of these children and teenagers working together and giving back together.

Starfire - $30,000 Starfire connects individuals with and without disabilities to social and service activities on the basis of shared gifts and passions. Connecting to others is an essential part of leading a good life. A grant from the children throughout all ages, families and children with and without disabilities to volunteer together in the community. Providing over 10,000 hours of valued service for local nonprofit, friendships are created that lead to a better understanding of people with disabilities. Starfire participants are seen for their gifts and passions. More positive communities and more compassionate citizens are the net result of these children and teenagers working together and giving back together.

Stepping Stones - $10,000 Stepping Stones serves close to 1,000 children and adults with disabilities with social, recreational and educational programs designed to celebrate and expand each child’s ability. Programs are at two locations: Stepping Stones, Gones, on 23 acres in Hamilton County and Stepping Stones Allyn, on 47 acres in Clermont County. A Dater grant supported the Early Childhood Education program, which included year-round preschool for children with disabilities at the Allyn site and a summer “Pebble” day camp for preschoolers with disabilities. Children with disabilities need the routine and ongoing educational/social/behavioral support of a year-round early education program to prepare them for kindergarten. At Stepping and an idea page so that they can draw on a patch of sidewalk. Their work is “judged” and they can earn gift certificates for school supplies and clothes. The Women’s Connection - $10,000 A neighborhood center in Price Hill, the Women’s Connection empowers women and girls to make choices that lead to positive change in their lives and envisions a community where women and girls are strong leaders and positive role models. A Dater grant supported the Girls JOURNEY program which provides age-appropriate after school and summer activities that enhance creativity and self-expression through art and music. Girls gain knowledge about topics such as peer pressure and relationships; learn skills for healthy living and making good choices; enrich their lives and make a difference in their neighborhoods, and learn the importance of teamwork, cooperation and community service. Monthly intergenerational programs are also held for the girls and a positive female role model in their lives, helping to bridge the activities that occur in the program with interactions in their home.

World Piano Competition - $20,000 The WPC’s Charles H. Dater Foundation Bach-Brahms Educational Outreach Program provided children with a multi-sensory experience through the combination of music, drawing and creative writing. As they heard the music and saw the artist, children were actively involved in the performance through the opportunity of immediate feedback. They transferred their aural and visual experience into drawings or creative writing. The program combined enriching performance by world renowned pianists with hands-on music and arts education and audience interaction. Young Artist and Artist winners of The World Piano Competition shared their knowledge and experiences with the audience.

Xavier University - $20,000 Xavier’s Summer Service Internship Program is a good over their lifetimes by instilling the values of the Scout Oath and Law. ScoutReach emphasizes service to rural and urban areas and to minority populations. A Dater grant continued support for a further expansion to CISE schools, where nearly 800 now participate. The goal is to ensure that youth from low income or minority outreach communities have the opportunity to participate in the Scouting program. The program provides teachers with character education materials to use in the classroom, and free camping opportunities are offered throughout the year.

Breakthrough Cincinnati - $10,000 Breakthrough is a free, year-round four-year academic enrichment program for high potential, low-income middle school students from the under-resourced urban core of Cincinnati. Students Teaching Students is the instructional model as talented high school and college students are motivated to consider careers in education. A Dater grant supported the six-week Summer Academic Session for 110 middle school students who took core academic (English, foreign language, history, math), skills classes from a faculty comprised of 28 high school and college students. Students complete two hours of homework per night, take final exams, learn their own parent-teacher conference, and have the opportunity to pursue leadership roles throughout the summer. Nearly 100% of Breakthrough students graduate from high school on time, with 85% choosing to continue their education at four-year colleges.

tirely student-run nonprofit organization that places 25 medical students in internships with nonprofit agencies each summer. A Dater grant supported three medical student interns at Welcome House of Northern Kentucky, Cincinnati Children’s Hospital, and Light-house Youth Development Center. These internships allowed students to experience the unique struggles of the pediatric community and their families while also providing agencies with much needed support. These interns, along with their colleagues, provided over 7,200 hours of service. UHP strives to educate, inspire, and challenge medical students through their service to marginalized populations in Greater Cincin-nati and to produce more socially responsible physi-cians who have a greater understanding of factors that impact health.

Valley Interfaith Food & Clothing Center - $15,000
Valley Interfaith assists residents in 13 communities in the upper Mill Creek area with food, clothing and emergency financial assistance. In August, with help from a Dater grant, Valley’s Back-2-School program gave out 913 backpacks filled with school supplies, new shoes, and gently used school clothes and/or uniforms. The distribution was a 14% increase over the prior year. A key component of the program was the staffing by a large group of dedicated volunteers, some of whom were on hand all five days. They ranged from high school students to college students to empty nesters. This very worthwhile program builds community in the children's touch and gives them the tools they need to succeed.

UC Med Mentors - $10,000
Med Mentors are 150 University of Cincinnati medical students who commit to one-on-one mentoring relationships with inner city citizens in Cincinnati Public Schools. They regularly meet with their mentees and encourage them to excel academically. A Dater grant provided funds for mentors and mentees to attend activities, such as school performances or the Cincinnati Zoo. They also baked cookies for their families, decorated gingerbread houses and enjoyed the great outdoors at a picnic in the park. They bowled, played sports, ate Grater’s ice-cream, rode roller coasters, and encountered sharks at the Aquarium. Mentees were exposed to a myriad of experiences they would otherwise never have had the opportunity to enjoy, and mentors in return...learned valuable life lessons.

Funding to CISE schools opens doors for children of all faiths to attend eight Catholic schools in Cincinnati’s poorest urban neighborhoods. Gospel values are taught and modeled and students receive an excellent educa-tion in an environment of respect, safety and discipline. A Dater grant supported the CISE after-school sports program administered by the Friars Club and provided organized athletics for boys and girls in grades K-8. The primary focus is on fundamental skill development.
Camp Joy Foundation - $10,000

Formerly founded as a church-sponsored summer camp in 1938, Camp Joy has evolved with time and community involvement into an independent, nonprofit organization that offers comprehensive programs for youth and adults. Joy delivers customized programs to organizations for camp, outdoor education and leadership. Camp programs are geared to low-income and foster youth, children with medical or special needs, and their families. An extensive volunteer program, Joy works with partners such as Boys & Girls Clubs, St. Vincent DePaul, and Cincinnati Children’s Hospital. A Dater grant supported outreach to underserved youth to develop social skills, interpersonal, and life skills through the camp experiences. Some specific outcomes reported include participants working as a team member, gaining a role model, learning a new skill, and feeling good about themselves as a result of their experience at Joy.

Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur - $10,000

St. Julie Billiart founded an order of nuns in Amiens, France in 1804, and a part of that international congregation is impacting lives in Cincinnati’s inner city. The Ohio Province of the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur carries on the founder’s work and the mission remains unchanged: commitment to education and taking a stand with the poor, especially women and children in the most abandoned places. A Dater grant helped leverage federal dollars through the Americorps Program and to underwrite two mission volunteers at Community Education, which serve 60% of students. Students are from single parent households, 70% qualify for the federal school lunch program, 100% graduate and most go on to private high schools. The volunteers improve educational performance by successful role models and teach important life skills.

This specialized one-on-one, multisensory structured phonics instruction is often a pivotal life-changing experience. Self-confidence emerges as students develop gateway literacy skills from first-time reading success, which in turn heals emotional scars from years of academic struggles. A Dater grant from the Dater Foundation allowed the Norwood and Cincinnati Centers to pursue a long-range vision and commitment to becoming a primary resource for the entire tri-state community through the training of qualified Orton-Gillingham practitioners and by offering educational programs and projects. Today, the Home provides special education and therapeutic treatment for vulnerable children and their families facing social, behavioral, and learning challenges. Through more than 20 camps and programs, children learn skills and success strategies. All children and adolescents are deeply impacted. A Dater grant supported Camp 4-CAN, a ten-week summer day camp for children from low-income families who would not otherwise have access to high-quality, low-cost summer care. The camp combines traditional summer activities such as swimming, music, crafts, and field trips with programs designed to enhance children’s physical fitness, self-esteem and social skills. About 100 children participated.

Children’s International Summer Villages - $6,000
Dr. Doris Allen, a University of Cincinnati psychologist, founded CISV USA, which “teaches us how to start with the children.” This global community of dedicated volunteers creates opportunities for children to experience the excitement and enrichment of cultural diversity through educational programs and projects. A Dater grant supported the 60th anniversary of CISV Cincinnati’s annual four-week village, the organization’s flagship program. Forty-eight 11-year-old boys and girls were delegates, and they lived, worked and played together while participating in a program that fostered friendship and cross-cultural understanding. Specific goals were forming lasting international friendships, breaking down stereotypes, and heightening cultural awareness.

Josh Cares - $37,000
Josh Cares is dedicated to ensuring that no seriously ill child goes through a hospitalization without the critical support of someone who cares. A Dater grant provided annual funding for one professionally trained Child Life Fellowship at Cincinnati Children’s Hospital’s Newborn Intensive Care Unit and supported patients whose family or friends could not be by their sides consistently. The initial months of life are a period of unparalleled growth when health and development are directly influenced by the quality of care and expectations of the child and their primary caregivers. Josh Cares Fellows provide this intense one-on-one support to a child when a family member cannot be present.

Keep Cincinnati Beautiful - $5,000
Educating and encouraging individuals to take greater responsibility for improving their community environments is a focus of Keep Cincinnati Beautiful. The issuance of litter, the importance of recycling and the need to put the 3Rs into practice is the starting point for changing attitudes and behaviors in children. A Dater grant supported the eighth season of presentations of the litter prevention play The Wartville Wizard. The play is about an old man’s frustration by the litter thrown from people in his town and his quest to live in a clean community. Actors are Clark Montessori High School students, whose role is to educate K-5 students on ways they can make a positive difference in their neighborhoods. To bring the message home to families, each school receives a “Junior Litter Patrol Officer Badge” sticker.

Cincinnati Recreation Commission Foundation - $7,000
Established in 1927, the Cincinnati Recreation Commission Foundation provides recreational, cultural, leisure and educational activities for Cincinnatians of all ages and abilities. CRC initiatives to improve the quality of life in Cincinnati, makes city neighborhoods more attractive to prospective residents and is vital for Cincinnati’s continuing growth and competitiveness. Since 1997, the RiverTrek summer program has given Cincinnati area youth and youth-at-risk opportunity for self-discovery, enhanced confidence, and leadership skills through a 65-mile journey on the Little Miami River. RiverTrek participants practice making different choices in their lives while they are away from the everyday stress of school and family. RiverTrek’s mission is to provide area youth and youth-at-risk opportunity for self-discovery, enhanced confidence, and leadership skills through a 65-mile journey on the Little Miami River. The Education Series runs October through May and reached 3,748 students, 38% of whom were deemed eligible for free meals. One Way Farm Children’s Home - $10,000
One Way Farm’s Animal Education Program offers therapeutic advantages to those children and youth in crisis as they learn the positive value of “good touch” and trust through animals. Children who have been neglected and/or abused often have not experienced “good touch,” nor do they have a high level of trust. Many animals at One Way Farm were once abandoned or homeless themselves. The situation provides the perfect match. Animals become loving companions to residents, demonstrating the unconditional love of animals.

Northside Community School - $5,000
With a basic education and GED attainment more important than ever, Northside Community School provides a nurturing and effective educational environment for both youth and adults. Free, long-term, one-on-one tutoring is provided to over 300 economically disadvantaged young adults and adults each year. Enrollment is open year-round and there is no residency requirement. The school offers TABE (Test of Adult Basic Education) and does grade-level assessments and consultations with students on a regular basis. In addition to tutoring and special sessions, additional resources such as health and wellness education and holiday programs for families are offered. A Dater grant supported the program.

Kentucky Symphony Orchestra - $10,000
The KSO was formed in 1992 to make classical music attractive, accessible, and understandable to people in Northern Kentucky and Greater Cincinnati. The KSO recognizes the need for arts education in schools and is committed to students’ scholastic and artistic development through its Education and Outreach Series. Educational concerts are designed to introduce classical music and its derivative genres. Additionally, the Musician House Call Program for grades 3-8 provides one-on-one, in-school music instruction for students with special needs. The Education Series runs October through May and reached 3,748 students, 38% of whom were deemed eligible for free meals.

Cincinnati Scholarship Foundation - $50,000, $15,000

The Cincinnati Scholarship Foundation was established in 1918 to financially assist students in Cincinnati Public Schools in completing their high school education. College financial assistance was available in 1918 and those two programs remain in effect today. A Dater grant of $50,000 to the New Horizons Scholarship Fund provided renewable $2,500 annual scholarships to five 2011 graduates of Gilbert A. Dater High School and a continued support of 13 Dater High Scholarship recipients. The Dater Scholarship recipients attended nine different colleges and universities and had an average GPA of slightly under 3.0. A $15,000 Dater Foundation grant supported 28 Dater High students through CSF’s High School Scholarship Program, a comprehensive college access and pre-college program for low income students in grades 7-12. Students receive a small monthly stipend for grades as well as support to attend college access workshops, go on college visits, participate in tutoring services and more.

Cincinnati Shakespeare Company - $10,000

Bringing Shakespeare and other classics to life for audiences of all ages is the work of Cincinnati Shakespeare Company. An Education & Outreach program supported in part by a grant from the Dater Foundation serves 23,000 students and families annually. The benefits of arts participation for individuals of all ages has become increasingly well-documented, yet access to high quality arts experiences remains elusive to many. This is particularly true for schools grappling with shrinking budgets, cuts in arts programs, and campuses located far from the downtown core. Through house matinees, in-school touring productions, after-school programs, and summer camps, and an annual Shakespeare in the Park summer mer tour, students across the region experience plays as they are meant to be experienced: spoken live on stage. Cincinnati Scholarship Foundation - $50,000, $15,000

The Cincinnati Scholarship Foundation was established in 1918 to financially assist students in Cincinnati Public Schools in completing their high school education. College financial assistance was added in the 1920s and both programs remain in effect today. A Dater grant of $50,000 to the New Horizons Scholarship Fund provided renewable $2,500 annual scholarships to five 2011 graduates of Gilbert A. Dater High School and continued support of 13 previous Dater High scholarship recipients. The Dater scholar-ship recipients attended nine different colleges and universities and had an average GPA of slightly under 3.0. A $15,000 Dater Foundation grant supported 28 Dater High students through CSF’s High School Scholarship Program, a comprehensive college access and intervention program for low income students in grades 7-12. Students receive a small monthly stipend for their grades as well as support to attend college, access workshops, go on college visits, participate in tutoring services and more.

Cincinnati Shakespeare Company - $10,000

Bringing Shakespeare and other classics to life for audiences of all ages is the work of Cincinnati Shakes-peare Company. An Education & Outreach Program supported in part by a grant from the Dater Foundation serves 23,000 students and families annually. The benefits of arts participation for individuals of all ages has become increasingly well-documented, yet access to high quality arts experiences remains elusive to many. This is particularly true for schools grappling with shrinking budgets, cuts in arts programs, and campuses located far from the downtown core. Through-house matinees, in-school touring productions, after- school workshops, intensive acting classes, summer camp sessions, and an annual Shakespeare in the Park sumprogramming offered to young people participating in the program. They were introduced to new activities throughout four summer camps (Art, Technology, Activities in Daily Living and Survivor) and year-round activities geared toward gaining the skills needed to advance in a sighted world. Children who participated in the program reported an increase in their self-esteem, independence, socialization and much more.

Gilbert A. Dater High School - $8,000

Dater High School is a six-year high school whose mission is to provide an excellent academic education that will prepare these children for a post-secondary education and beyond. The Momentum Summer Bridge program served students in grades 7-9 and included language arts and mathematics as well as physical education/athletic activities over the course of three weeks. Goals for participants were less anxiety with course work as they started school, higher achievement on benchmark tests and class work, a greater ease in making positive choices and a stronger school pride. A benefit of holding the program at Mt. Saint Joseph was that many of the students got their first exposure to a college environment.

Fernside: A Center for Grieving Children - $7,000

Fernside offers support and advocacy to grieving families who have experienced a death, including group support meetings, funerals, and preparation of a child for their first day. Students are taught at their ability level. Job schedules are accommodated by offering day and night classes. Fernside served 123 students and 21 GED graduates last year.

Ensemble Theatre Cincinnati - $10,000

Ensemble’s summer program. Since then, the organization has grown and now provides summer programming, transportation, uniforms, supplies, field trips, and specialized training for all the educational aspects of the program. A Health Fair is a highlight of the eight-week summer camp, providing an opportunity for students to display their new healthy knowledge in a variety of ways.

Environmental Mobile Unit (EMU) - $10,000

EMU provides hands-on environmental science programs to schoolchildren in Butler and Preble Counties. A Dater grant helped EMU, teachers, and students create outdoor learning resources to increase science skills and interests. Children observe and record data for digital Guides to Trees of Bridgeport, Ridgeway, and Kramer Schools. School improvements to Elda’s and Bogan’s bird feeding stations let students spy on birds. Repairs to Marshall’s bird blind and trails and the creation of a butterfly garden at Fairwood will help teachers encourage on-going, outdoor research. Fun, positive experiences result as outdoor scientists give children opportunities to make personal connections with the plants and animals they discover and to become more aware that the environment is shared with myriad of other species.

Epilepsy Foundation of Greater Cincinnati - $5,000

The mission of the Epilepsy Foundation of Greater Cincinnati is to lead the fight to stop, care for, and overcome the challenges created by seizures. One way this is accomplished is through a counseling program that provides free, in-person mental health counseling, telephone counseling, and support groups for people living with epilepsy, parents and loved ones. These services are also provided to families at Cincinnati Children’s Hospital. The impact of the Counseling Program, which has been in existence since 1953, is felt annually by more than 1,700 people.

Fernside offers support and advocacy to grieving families who have experienced a death, including providing opportunities to process and heal, and to re-establish relationships. A goal is increased awareness of grief issues through community outreach. A Dater grant supported Camp Erin, a unique camp and retreat experience offered at no charge for 94 children and teens grieving the death of a family member or friend. Children participated in traditional camping activities. In addition, expressive arts and group discussions enabled participants to identify and express their feelings and feel less isolated. Healthy coping skills taught at Camp Erin provided children with essential coping techniques.

East End Adult Education Center - $10,000

The Center has been turning lives around for 39 years. All students are from low income families and range in age from 14 to 70. They are dropouts from the regular school system due to discipline, learning issues, health problems, poverty, and family problems. Most have never had a good experience in school and East End tries to change that so students can succeed on their first day. Students are taught at their ability level. Job schedules are accommodated by offering day and night classes. East End served 123 students and 21 GED graduates last year. Every student who attended regularly improved his or her educational abilities and job readiness.

Josh Cares - $37,000

Josh Cares is dedicated to ensuring that no seriously ill child goes through a hospitalization without the critical support of someone who could make that stay a little easier. A Dater grant provided annual funding for one professionally trained Child Life Fellow at Cincinnati Children’s Hospital’s Newborn Intensive Care Unit and supported patients when the child or family member could not be by their sides consistently. The initial months of life are a period of unparalleled growth when health and development are directly influenced by the quality of care and experiences children have with their parents and other primary caregivers. Josh Cares Fellows provide this intense one-on-one support to a child when a family member cannot be present.

One Way Farm Children’s Home - $10,000

One Way Farm’s Animal Education Therapy Program offers therapeutic advantages to children and youth in crises as they learn the positive value of “good touch” and trust through animals. Children who have been neglected and/or abused often have not experienced “good touch,” nor do they have a high level of trust. Most animals that live at One Way Farm were once abandoned or homeless themselves. The situation provides the perfect match. Animals become loving companions to residents, demonstrating the uncondicional organizations in the region, providing a vibrant and fresh musical experience in an intimate and informal way. Its multimedia components include a weekly radio broadcast, an interactive web site and curriculum materials. The radio broadcast airs Saturday morning at 10:00 am and Sunday evening at 6:00 pm. Online at www.classicsforkids.com, the program offers fun multimedia games, audio music files, archived radio shows, a musical dictionary, interactive musical features, and lesson planning materials for teachers and parent resources. The variety of musical information available on the web site for children to explore has been increased and enhanced. Cincinnati Recreation Commission Foundation - $7,000

Established in 1927, the Cincinnati Recreation Commission Foundation provides recreational, cultural, leisure and educational activities for Cubstones of all ages and abilities. CRC intends to make the city more attractive, accessible and affordable to people in Northern Kentucky and Greater Cincinnati. The play is about an old man’s frustration by the litter thrown from people in his town and his quest to live in a clean community. Actors are Clark Montessori High School students, whose role is to educate K-3 students on ways they can make a positive difference in their neighborhoods. To bring the message home to families, each school receives a “Junior Litter Patrol Officer Badge” sticker.

Cincinnati Ballet - $5,000
Cincinnati Ballet has a mantra, “Everybody Dances.” It’s the belief that everyone has a right to explore movement and physical strength, because expression is the right of a well-balanced, healthy life style. A Dater grant supported Cincinnati Ballet’s CincyDance! Education & Outreach program. The program supported Community Education, which serves youth of all ages. Young people from universities, high schools, middle schools and churches participate in service learning, contemporary dance instruction and immersion experiences. The goal is that those who engage with Peaslee’s Community Education Program will become more compassionately fit, to set and achieve goals, and to build confidence and self-esteem. This program has opened a door to become accomplished ballet dancers.

Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra - $2,500
Founded in 1974, Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra is widely recognized as one of the leading performing arts organizations in the region. It is a community orchestra known for its musical excellence and commitment to education and community outreach.

Peaslee Neighborhood Center - $10,000
Peaslee provides a peaceful place where Over the Rhine residents create and engage in participatory education to foster creative expression, self-determination and social change. Peaslee programs include a Child Development Center, drumming and art classes, private piano lessons and a Community Education program to support Community Education, which serves youth of all ages. Young people from universities, high schools, middle schools and churches participate in service learning, contemporary dance instruction and immersion experiences. The goal is that those who engage with Peaslee’s Community Education Program will become more compassionately fit, to set and achieve goals, and to build confidence and self-esteem. This program has opened a door to become accomplished ballet dancers.

Price Hill Will - $3,000
Price Hill Will is a Community Development Corporation in the Price Hill neighborhoods of Cincinnati. Community development on Hatmaker Street with Nate Morton, the neighborhood mailman, in the role of DJ. Hundreds of neighborhood youth turned out to dance to their R&B, Reggae and Gospel sounds. Parents and other neighborhood residents brought lawn chairs to watch, listen and, in many cases, participate in the dances with the kids. The Limbo and Hokey Pokey were hits with both adults and children.

School House Symphony - $10,000
School House Symphony presents music education programs to pre-school and K-8 children throughout Greater Cincinnati. Music education programs and discussions include music from different cultures and periods. The SHS ensemble is a sextet specifically designed to represent the families of instruments: two each of brass, strings, and woodwinds. All six ensemble members also play percussion instruments and sing. Each program is based on specific educational objectives and centered on a specific theme. SHS presents about 250 performances at over 60 public and private schools and reaches some 20,000 students in its program year. Funding from the Dater Foundation makes it possible to provide programming to schools at affordable prices.

Children, Inc. - $5,000
Children, Inc. advances the success of children by partnering with friends, professionals and the community through high impact projects, training, research and advocacy. The Service Learning program provides resources so teachers may implement experiential learning activities that get students involved and passionate about education and also teach the importance of giving back. The students learn to give back and the recipients of their giving benefit as well. More than 22,500 students completed a service learning project. These student projects raised and gave away over $11,000 to worthy causes, including disaster relief and the Freestore Foodbank. A Dater grant supported the program.

Children’s Dyslexia Centers - $7,500
Formerly 32nd Degree Masonic Learning Center, Children’s Dyslexia Centers of Cincinnati operates two local campuses, providing after school and summer tutoring for children with characteristics of dyslexia at no charge to the families. This specialized one-on-one, multi-sensory structured phonics instruction is often a pivotal life-changing experience. Self-confidence emerges as students develop gateway literacy skills from first-time reading success, which in turn eases emotional scars from years of academic struggles. A Dater grant from the Dater Foundation allowed the Norwood and Cincinnati Centers to pursue a long-range vision for addressing the needs of students with dyslexia.

Childhood Food Solutions - $15,000
CFS attacks child hunger by providing food for non-school days. Winter break, when students are without school meals for two weeks, is an especially critical time. A Dater grant supported winter break food sacks for over 1,000 students. Research shows that children who experience regular hunger do poorly in school and in life. Therefore, CFS uses math proficiency as a success measurement. For schools supported by Dater grants, math proficiency has improved from 31% to 53% in recent years. CFS has the goal of 80% of students achieving math proficiency by 2013. While school administration, teachers, tutors and other factors can contribute to increases in math proficiency, CFS believes that when students do not experience hunger all other factors work better.

Children’s Home of Cincinnati - $10,000

The role of the Children’s Home has evolved since its founding nearly 150 years ago. Today, the Home provides special education and therapeutic treatment for vulnerable children and their families facing social, behavioral, and learning challenges. Through more than 20 campus operated programs and services, young lives are transformed, helping them to succeed in their homes, schools and communities. Last year, over 6,600 individuals were deeply impacted. A Dater grant supported Camp-I-Can, a ten-week summer day camp for children from low-income families who would not otherwise have access to high-quality, low-cost summer care. The camp combines traditional summer activities like swimming, music, crafts, and field trips with programs designed to enhance children’s physical fitness, self-esteem and social skills.

Cincinnati Association for the Blind and Visually Impaired - $30,000

Cincinnati’s wide range of programs includes a strong focus on helping young people. Two music specialists provided children who are blind or visually impaired with individualized and group music services. A Dater grant also supported two events: the Hands-on Music Experience with Zack Morgan and the Annual Music Recital. Morgan performed in 2011 and taught children’s songwriter and performer who does literacy work in schools. The Hands-on Music Experience provided students with a chance to explore musical methods for learning new skills. The Annual Music Recital offered each child a moment in the spotlight with an audience of family members and friends who come to cheer them on. CABVI’s Music Program helps children gain music skills and confidence in their individual abilities.

CET (WCT), the first licensed educational television organization in the nation, positively contributes to the quality of life in Greater Cincinnati. Research has indicated nearly half of America’s children are not prepared to succeed when they enter kindergarten. Moreover, children living in poverty enter kindergarten at an especially high disadvantage, particularly in literacy skills. A Dater grant provides for the program, both on air and outreach. An example is Raising Readers, launched at John P. Parker and Pleasant Hill Academy schools. Learning time is any time, as children throughout the day are impacted on a variety of media platforms and devices with engaging activities that will help build reading skills. Starfire - $30,000
Starfire connects individuals with and without disabilities to social and service activities on the basis of shared gifts and passions. Connecting to others is an essential part of leading a good life. A grant from the Children’s Foundation allows children and children with and without disabilities to volunteer together in the community. Providing over 10,000 hours of valued and sometimes local nonprofits, friendships are created that lead to a better understanding of people with disabilities. Starfire participants are seen for their gifts and passions. More positive communities and more compassionate citizens are the net result of these children and teens working together and giving back together.

Stepping Stones - $10,000
Stepping Stones serves close to 1,000 children and adults with disabilities with social, recreational and educational programs designed to celebrate and expand each individual’s abilities. Programs are at two locations: Stepping Stones Given in 23 acres in Hamilton County and Stepping Stones Allyn, on 47 acres in Clermont County. A Dater grant supported the Early Childhood Education program, which included year-round preschool for children with disabilities at the Allyn site and a summer “Pebble” day camp for preschoolers with disabilities. Children with disabilities need the routine and ongoing educational/social/behavioral support of a year-round early education program to prepare them for kindergarten. At Stepping and an idea page so that they can draw on a patch of sidewalk. Their work is “judged” and they can earn gift certificates for school supplies and school clothes.

World Piano Competition - $20,000
The WPC’s Charles H. Dater Foundation Bach-Beethoven-Brahms Educational Outreach Program provided children with a multi-sensory experience through the combination of music, drawing and creative writing. As they heard the music and saw the art, children were actively involved in the performance through the opportunity of immediate feedback. They transferred their aural and visual experience into drawings or creative writing. The program combined performing performances by world renowned pianists with hands-on music and arts education and audience interaction. Young Artist and Artist winners of The World Piano Competition shared their knowledge and experiences with the audience.

Camp Joy Foundation - $10,000

Initially founded as a church-sponsored summer camp in 1938, Camp Joy has evolved with time and community involvement into an independent, nonprofit organization that offers comprehensive programs for youth and adults. Joy offers customized programs to organizations for camp, outdoor education and leadership. Camp programs are geared to low-income and foster youth, children with medical or special needs, and their families. The program, Joy works with partners such as Boys & Girls Clubs, St. Vincent DePaul, and Cincinnati Children’s Hospital. A Dater grant supported outreach to underserved youth to develop interpersonal, intercultural, and life skills through the camp experiences. Some specific outcomes reported include participants working as a team member, gaining a role model, learning a new skill, and feeling good about themselves as a result of their experience at Joy.

Valley Interfaith Food & Clothing Center - $15,000

Valley Interfaith assists residents in 13 communities in the upper Mill Creek area with food, clothing and emergency financial assistance. In August, with help from a Dater grant, Valley's Back-2-School program gifted out 913 backpacks filled with school supplies, new shoes, and gently used school clothes and/or uniforms. The distribution was a 14% increase over the prior year. A key component of the program was the staffing by a large group of dedicated volunteers, some of whom were on hand all five days. They ranged from high school students to college students to empty nesters. This very worthwhile program builds community partnerships, strengthens relationships between the center and its clients and gives them the tools they need to succeed.

UC Med Mentors - $10,000

Med Mentors are 150 University of Cincinnati medical students who commit to one-on-one mentoring relationships with inner city students in Cincinnati Public Schools. They regularly mentor their mentees and encourage them to excel academically. A Dater grant provided funds for mentors and mentees to attend activities such as performances of Shrek and Stomp. They also baked cookies for their families, decorated gingerbread houses and enjoyed the great outdoors at a picnic in the park. They bowled, played sports, ate Graeter’s ice-cream, rode roller coasters, and encountered sharks at the Aquarium. Mentees were exposed to a myriad of experiences they would otherwise never have had the opportunity to enjoy, and mentors (soon to be doctors) learned valuable life lessons.

Women’s Art Club of Cincinnati Foundation - $5,000

Founded in 1892, the Woman’s Art Club stimulates artistic creativity and provides quality educational and cultural experiences to the residents of Greater Cincinnati. Fondly known as “The Barn,” the Woman’s Art Club Cultural Center in Mariemont is home to countless hours of volunteer efforts. Patchwork Kids is one...a summertime art program for children aged 4-14 in the Pendleton area of Over the Rhine. Club members partner with local a variety of entities, neighbors, and parents of the children. Each Friday morning from late June to early August, children are given chalk, other supplies and more to create a safe and creative outdoor studio. The program is offered at no charge to people and their loved ones, so no one has to face cancer alone. Cancer does not only affect the adults who receive the diagnoses but also impacts a family’s youngest members. Walking the Dinosaur is designed to provide children and their loves, ages 5-18, strategies for dealing with the challenges of having a family member’s cancer and one’s cancer diagnosis. Adult caregivers also meet and share information to ease the stress of parenting during cancer. Thirty-nine adult and families completed the program in 2010 and 100% of the families reported they are less fearful of the impact of a cancer diagnosis on their children.

Catholic Inner-City Schools Education Fund - $40,000

Funding to CISE schools opens doors for children of all faiths to attend eight Catholic schools in Cincinnati’s poorest urban neighborhoods. Gospel values are taught and modeled and students receive an excellent education in an environment of respect, safety and discipline. A Dater Grant supported the CISE after-school sports program administered by the Friars Club and provided organized athletics for boys and girls in grades K-8. The primary focus is on fundamental skill development.
tirely student-run nonprofit organization that places 25 medical students in internships with nonprofit agencies each summer. A Dater grant supported three medical student interns at Welcome House of Northern Kentucky, Cincinnati Children’s Hospital, and Light-house Youth Development Center. These internships allowed students to experience the unique struggles of the pediatric communities and their families, while also providing agencies with much needed support. These interns, along with their colleagues, provided over 7,200 hours of service. UHP strives to educate, inspire, and challenge medical students through their service to marginalized populations in Greater Cincin-nati and to produce more socially responsible physi-cians who have a greater understanding of factors that impact health.

Beech Acres Parenting Center - $5,000 Beech Acres has served children and families in Greater Cincinnati for 160 years. Programs are based on the guiding principle that parents, and other dedicated adults who provide care and affection, are the best for their children, and all need education, support and guidance in raising their children to achieve their unique potential. A Dater grant supports the Community Skills in Conﬂict, a program designed to alleviate and/or reduce the anger and stress associated with divorce, separation and/or custody issues while improving the conditions in which children are raised. The program model is unique in that parents meet separately from their children, who are divided in groups by age. The concurrent sessions teach both parents and children effective, proven techniques to increase problem solving and communication skills, resulting in healthier family dynamics.

Overall goals are for girls to: acquire knowledge/skills to take charge of and make informed, thoughtful decisions about their sexual health; learn to manage money, invest, and begin to develop an appreciation for global economics; explore and critically decipher the media portrayal of girls/women and its impact on societal expectations and individual choices.

Charles H. Dater, 1912-1993 Philanthropist, Businessman, Cincinnati

Charles Hisxon Dater was born in Cincinnati in 1912. A brother, the only other child of Charles Henry Dater and his wife Ona, died as an infant 12 years before Charles was born.

Charles grew up in Northside and attended North Presbyterian Church. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati and pursued a master’s in business administration at Harvard University. He served as an officer in the U.S. Army during World War II.

His father died when Charles was only 17 years old, and he was thrust into management of the family’s holdings at an early age. After his mother died, his full-time focus became the family’s investments and residential land development in Western Hills, where he lived in a modest three-bedroom ranch home. He died in 1993.

Many Greater Cincinnati institutions and charities beneﬁted from his generosity through the years, both before and after the establishment of the Foundation; but Charles preferred that his gifts be anonymous and unrecognized.

He made the decision in the mid-1980s to establish a foundation to preserve the family’s memory and to ensure that funding through grants for worthwhile community programs would continue.

The Dater family and its ties to Cincinnati date back four generations. Charles’s great-grandfather, Adam Dater, emigrated from Germany and settled in Cincinnati in 1830. Hard work and business acumen were hallmarks of succeeding generations of Dater family members, who successfully supported their success with their community. A Cincinnati high school and Montessori school are named in honor of Gilbert Dater, grandfather of Charles.

Grant Recipient Profiles

The Foundation welcomes the opportunity to salute the good work being done by the nonprofit organizations that received grants in 2010-11. Profiles on the following pages provide information about each grant recipient, the project funded by the Foundation, and the impact being made. Most organizations have web sites that provide more information about their activities.

A Kid Again - $10,000

Children with life threatening illnesses and their families are the focus of A Kid Again, which provides healing times of respite through fun-filled group activities and destination events (“adventures”). The year-round adventures foster laughter, joy, normalcy and supportive networking opportunities. Children, siblings and parents are offered a cost-free occasion to enjoy quality time together and to create lasting memories. A Dater grant helped with the Holiday Party Adventure, which was held at Crossroads Church and hosted 294 families and 1,357 hurting individuals. The 2010 party provided dinner, games, entertainment, photos with Santa and family photos to help preserve the memories. Each child received a gift.

American Assistance Association - $10,000

Making an everyday difference in the quality of life for all people with diabetes is the Association’s goal. This happens through funding diabetes research programs and providing education and advocacy efforts. Camp Korelitz gives children living with diabetes the opportunity to meet and learn from adult counselors and other children with diabetes who have gone through many of the same experiences. They learn ways to cope with the disease. Both children and their parents say one of the greatest benefits of attending diabetes camp is the opportunity to be a part of a group. Financial challenges are often encountered by families in order to keep their children with diabetes alive and well. A Dater grant funded camp scholarships for 30 disadvantaged children in 2011.

Grant Application Process

The Dater Foundation’s online, web-based Grant Request/Application and Grant Evaluation Report process is designed to make the grant seeking process easier and more time efficient for nonprofit organizations.

A customized grant application format mirrors the Foundation’s previous hard-copy format. Applicants are directed to fill in specific fields and upload certain documents. Additional documents (newsletters, news articles, annual reports, etc.) may be uploaded as well.

The “Grants” section of the Foundation’s web site includes:
- Grant Guidelines
- Grant History
- Links to the online Grant Request/Application and Grant Evaluation Report sections

Grantmaking Focus, Process and Timing

The Foundation makes grants to private, nonprofit organizations and public agencies in Greater Cincinnati for programs that benefit children in the region in the areas of arts/culture, education, healthcare, social services and other community needs. Greater Cincinnati is defined as the eight-county area made up of the counties of Hamilton, Butler, Warren and Clermont in Ohio; Boone, Kenton and Campbell in Kentucky; and Dearborn in Indiana. The Foundation does not make grants to individuals, for scholarships for individuals, for debt reduction, and, with rare exception, for capital fund projects. Grants are usually made for one year and subsequent grants for an extended or ongoing program are based on an evaluation of annual results. Multiple grants to an organization in the Foundation’s same fiscal year (September through August) are possible, but rare. The Foundation looks favorably on applications that leverage a grant to secure additional funding and resources.

Grant applicants are strongly urged to review the Grant Guidelines before initiating a grant application. This will help grant seekers better understand the Foundation’s background and grantmaking priorities, thereby improving the likelihood of approval for some and saving valuable time for others whose application may not be consistent with the Foundation’s focus.

Applicants may want to consider submitting a brief “pre-application summary proposal.” Details are in the Grants section of the Foundation’s web site. The Grant Request/Application process requires about 60 days from the time an application is received until a grant request is approved or declined. Once an application is approved, funds are dispersed in about two weeks.

Dater Foundation Grants

Arthritis Foundation - $5,000

The Arthritis Foundation improves lives of people with arthritis or at risk for arthritis through research, education, advocacy, disease management and exercise programs. Without positive intervention and empowerment of the families involved, these chronic diseases can govern the lives of both families and children impacted by arthritis. A Dater grant supported the SAK (Supporting Arthritis Kids) Backpack Program in partnership with Cincinnati Children’s Hospital Medical Center. The purpose of the program is to provide educational materials, resources and support to local children with juvenile arthritis and their families.

ArtWorks - $10,000

Founded in 1996, ArtWorks is a nonprofit arts organization that connects artists of all ages with opportunities in the arts through inspiring apprenticeships, community partnerships, and public art. ArtWorks’ Summer Program provides quality job training and employment for a diverse group of young people ages 14-21 each year in meaningful arts projects that make a positive visual impact on the community, creating a lasting creative and personal development. In 2011, a Dater grant supported Room By Room, a project partnership between ArtWorks and Ronald McDonald House Charities. ArtWorks hired a team of 15 Apprentice Artists and four professional artists to create colorful and inspiring works of art for guest rooms in the newly expanded Ronald McDonald House. The team created a home-like environment by installing mixed-media works of art that were installed in the guest rooms in order to enliven the space, promote creativity and healing, and make each room feel like a home away from home.

Grant Recipient Profiles

The Foundation welcomes the opportunity to salute the good work being done by the nonprofit organizations that received grants in 2010-11. Profiles on the following pages provide information about each grant recipient, the project funded by the Foundation, and the impact being made. Most organizations have web sites that provide more information about their activities.

A Kid Again - $10,000

Children with life-threatening illnesses and their families are the focus of A Kid Again, which provides healing times of respite through full group activities and destination events (“adventures”). The year-round adventures foster laughter, joy, normalcy and supportive networking opportunities. Children, siblings and parents are offered a cost-free occasion to enjoy quality time together and to create lasting memories. A Dater grant helped with the Holiday Party Adventure, which was held at Crossroads Church and hosted 294 families and 1,357 hurting individuals. The 2010 party provided dinner, games, entertainment, photos with Santa and family photos to help preserve the memories. Each child received a gift.

American Museum Association - $10,000

Making an everyday difference in the quality of life for all people with diabetes is the Association’s goal. This happens through funding diabetes research programs and providing education and advocacy efforts. Camp Korelitz gives children living with diabetes the opportunity to meet and learn from adult counselors and other children with diabetes who have gone through many of the same experiences. They learn to cope with the disease. Both children and their parents say one of the greatest benefits of attending diabetes camp is the opportunity to be part of a group. Financial challenges are often encountered by families in order to keep their children with diabetes alive and well. A Dater grant funded camp scholarships for 30 disadvantaged children in 2011.

Grant Application Process

The Dater Foundation’s online, web-based Grant Request/Application and Grant Evaluation Report process is designed to make the grant seeking process easier and more efficient for nonprofit organizations.

A customized grant application format mirrors the Foundation’s previous hard-copy format. Applicants are directed to fill in specific fields and upload certain documents. Additional documents (newsletters, news articles, annual reports, etc.) may be uploaded as well. The “Guides” section of the Foundation’s web site includes:

- Grant Guidelines
- Grant History
- Links to the online Grant Request/Application and Grant Evaluation Report sections

Grantmaking Focus, Process and Timing

The Foundation makes grants to private, nonprofit organizations and public agencies in Greater Cincinnati for programs that benefit children in the region in the areas of arts/culture, education, healthcare, social services and other community needs. Greater Cincinnati is defined as the eight-county area made up of the counties of Hamilton, Butler and Clermont in Ohio; Boone, Kenton and Campbell in Kentucky; and Dearborn in Indiana. The Foundation does not make grants to individuals, for scholarships for individuals, for debt reduction, and, with rare exception, for capital fund projects. Grants are usually made for one-year and subsequent grants for an extended or ongoing program are based on an evaluation of annual results. Multiple grants to an organization in the Foundation’s same fiscal year (September through August) are possible, but rare. The Foundation looks favorably on applications that leverage a grant to secure additional funding and resources.

Grant applicants are strongly urged to review the Grant Guidelines before initiating a grant application. This will help grant seekers better understand the Foundation’s background and grantmaking priorities, thereby improving the likelihood of approval for some and saving valuable time for others whose application may not be consistent with the Foundation’s focus.

Applicants may want to consider submitting a brief “pre-application summary proposal.” Details are in the Grant Section of the Foundation’s web site. The Grant Request/Application process requires about 60 days from the time an application is received until a grant request is approved or declined. Once an application is approved, funds are dispersed in about two weeks.

Arthritis Foundation - $5,000

The Arthritis Foundation improves lives of people with arthritis or at risk for arthritis through research, education, advocacy, disease management and exercise programs. Without positive intervention and empowerment of the families involved, these chronic diseases can govern the lives of both families and children impacted by arthritis. A Dater grant supported the "SAK (Supporting Arthritis Kids) Backpack Program in partnership with Cincinnati Children’s Hospital Medical Center. The purpose of the program is to provide educational materials, resources and support to local children with juvenile arthritis and their families.

ArtWorks - $10,000

Founded in 1996, ArtWorks is a nonprofit arts organization that connects artists of all ages with opportunities in the arts through inspiring apprenticeships, community partnerships, and public art. ArtWorks’ Summer Program provides quality job training and employment for a diverse group of young people ages 14-21 each year in meaningful arts projects that make a positive impact on the participant’s artistic development and personal development. In 2011, a Dater grant supported Room By Room, a project partnership between ArtWorks and Ronald McDonald House Charities. ArtWorks hired a team of 15 Apprentice Artists and four professional artists to create colorful and inspiring works of art for guest rooms in the newly expanded Ronald McDonald House. The team created over 44 mixed-media works of art that were installed in the guest rooms in order to enliven the space, promote creativity and healing, and make each room feel like a home away from home.

Charles H. Dater, 1912-1993
Philanthropist, Businessman, Cincinnati

Charles Hisxon Dater was born in Cincinnati in 1912. A brother, the only other child of Charles Henry Dater and his wife Ona, died as an infant 12 years before Charles was born.

Charles grew up in Northside and attended North Presbyterian Church. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati and pursued a master’s in business administration at Harvard University. He served as an officer in the U.S. Army during World War II.

His father died when Charles was only 17 years old, and he was thrust into management of the family’s holdings at an early age. After his mother died, his full-time focus for worthwhile community programs would continue.

He made the decision in the mid-1980s to establish a foundation to preserve the family’s memory and to ensure that funding through grants for worthwhile community programs would continue.

The Dater family and its ties to Cincinnati date back four generations. Charles’s great-grandfather, Adam Dater, emigrated from Germany and settled in Cincinnati in 1830. Hard work and business acumen were hallmarks of succeeding generations of Dater family members, who generously shared their success with their community.

A Cincinnati high school and Montessori school are named in honor of Gilbert Dater, grandfather of Charles.

The Foundation made 114 grants totaling $1,597,950 in the grant/fiscal year (September 2010 to August 2011). Grants ranged from $1,000 to $132,500. The median grant was $10,000 and the average grant was $14,017. Over 2,100 grants have been awarded to nearly 400 organizations over the last twenty-six years. THE FOUNDATION'S GRANTMAKING INCREASED BY SIX PERCENT IN 2010-11, BUT REMAINED BELOW THE LEVEL PRIOR TO THE RECENT ECONOMIC DOWNTURN. ASSETS WERE AT $39 MILLION IN AUGUST 2011. THE FOUNDATION DOES NOT GENERATE REVENUES THROUGH PROGRAMS OR GIFTS, SO ITS GRANTMAKING IS TIED TO INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE. AFTER MAKING GRANTS TO AN AVERAGE OF 20 NEW ORGANIZATIONS IN THE PRIOR THREE YEARS, GRANTS WERE MADE TO ONLY FOUR NEW GRANTEES IN 2009-10 AND FIVE NEW GRANTEES IN 2010-11. THE FOCUS NARROWED TO PROVIDING CONTINUING, THOUGH FREQUENTLY REDUCED, SUPPORT TO PRIOR GRANT RECIPIENTS. THE FOUNDATION, WHICH HAS NO FULL-TIME STAFF MEMBERS, PERFORMS THE WORK OF STAFF, REVIEWING HUNDREDS OF GRANT APPLICATIONS AND GRANT EVALUATION REPORTS. FOUNDATION DIRECTORS FIND THAT THEY ARE ABLE TO BE MORE THOROUGH AND EFFICIENT IN REVIEWING APPLICATIONS, EVALUATIONS AND OTHER DOCUMENTS, WHICH ARE AVAILABLE 24/7. FOR THOSE UNABLE TO USE THE ONLINE SYSTEM, THE FOUNDATION IS ABLE TO ACCOMMODATE. ALSO, THE PRELIMINARY GRANT PROPOSAL PROCESS REMAINS IN PLACE FOR GRANT SEEKERS TO GET PRELIMINARY FEEDBACK ABOUT A REQUEST BEFORE THEY SPEND TIME ON A FULL APPLICATION NOT LIKELY TO BE APPROVED. THE FOUNDATION'S WEB SITE FEATURES DETAILED INFORMATION ABOUT ITS GRANTMAKING PROCESS.

The Foundation is committed to Enriching the Lives of Children. Its mission: to make gifts to nonprofit organizations in the Greater Cincinnati area to carry out projects and programs that benefit children and focus in the areas of arts/culture, education, healthcare, social services and other community needs. Businessman and philanthropist Charles H. Dater (1912-1993), a fourth generation Cincinnatian, established the Foundation in 1985 to ensure that funding for worthwhile community programs would continue after his death. The Foundation honors the memory and preserves the philanthropic commitment of Charles and his ancestors, who lived and worked in the Cincinnati area for over 150 years provided them with the opportunity to share their support with the Cincinnati area. DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS play an active role in the work of the Foundation, which has no full-time staff members. THEY PERFORM THE WORK OF STAFF, REVIEWS HUNDREDS OF GRANT REQUESTS EACH YEAR. they make site visits to current and potential grant recipients, monitor how grant dollars are being spent, and seek new grant applicants whose goals coincide with those of the Foundation.
Director Emeritus

Dorothy G. Krone
Vice President and Director

Dorothy G. Krone retired as a director and officer of the Foundation and assumed the role of director emeritus in January 2005. She had been an active member of the Foundation’s board since 1993, bringing a lifetime of community and charitable involvement and experience to the organization. Upon retiring, Mrs. Krone said, “This has been a very rewarding experience. Most of all, I treasure the memories of visits to grant recipients and seeing first hand how these dedicated nonprofit organizations stretched our grants dollars to do many good things for the children of Greater Cincinnati.” A life-long Cincinnatian, she grew up in the fifth floor area and attended Walnut Hills High School. She earned a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration at the University of Cincinnati. She worked briefly for the Cincinnati Board of Education after college. As a full-time mother of four children, she made time for extensive volunteer commitments. She was a reading tutor at Kilgour School, a Cub Scout den mother, a Brownie leader, a Sunday school teacher at Knox Presbyterian Church, and a preschool teacher at Hyde Park Community Church. She also served as a volunteer for the Cincinnati Art Museum, and the Hill and Dale Garden Club. After her children were grown, she returned to the University of Cincinnati and earned a temporary teacher certificate. She is the widow of Paul Krone, a founding member of the Foundation’s board who died in 1995. She lives in the Hyde Park area of Cincinnati.

Former Directors and Officers

Paul W. Krone, 1925-1995
Director and President 1985-1995

Paul W. Krone was a founding Board member and served as the Foundation’s first President from 1985 until his death in 1995. Krone was born in Cincinnati and was a life-long resident. He graduated from Walnut Hills High School and the University of Cincinnati, where his involvement in Phi Delta Theta fraternity continued throughout his life. He earned his law degree from Salmon P. Chase College of Law. He practiced law for 13 years before starting Eichel and Krone in 1971. His law practice focused on estate planning and business law. His son Bruce Krone joined him in the practice in 1982. Krone is survived by his wife, Dorothy, who served as a Foundation director and officer from 1995 to 2004, and their four children.

Stanley J. (Jack) Frank, Jr.
Treasurer and Director

Stanley J. “Jack” Frank is an original member of the Foundation board. He was born and raised in Cincinnati and graduated from St. Xavier High School, where he played football and ran track. He was a dean’s list student at George Washington University in Washington, D.C., and graduated with a bachelor’s degree in Economics. He earned his Master’s Business Administration at Xavier University. He joined Merrill Lynch after college and began a career as a financial advisor that would last 45 years. He taught adult education courses in securities and investments at two area high schools. He has been active in civic organizations, serving on the boards of the Cincinnati Speech and Hearing Center and Georgetown University Alumni Association, and on the boards and as president of Hyde Park Tennis Club and St. Xavier High Alumni Association. He and his late wife Margaret raised six children. He lives in East Walnut Hills.

Amanda Prebble Lenhart
Director

Amanda Prebble Lenhart was elected to the Foundation board in December 2006. She is a partner with the law firm of Dinsmore & Shohl LLP. Her practice is focused in the area of litigation principally involving business matters, trusts and civil fiduciary issues. After earning a Bachelor of Philosophy from Miami University in 1997, she received her Juris Doctorate, with honors, from the University of Cincinnati College of Law in 2000. She is a member of the Potter Stewart Inn of Court, was the recipient of the YWCA Women of Achievement “Rising Star 2005” award and completed the YWCA Rising Star Board Leadership Program. Ms. Lenhart lives in the Cincinnati neighborhood of Ivy Hills.

Grantmaking pushed the Charles H. Dater Foundation above the $32 million plateau in grants distributed since the first grant was awarded in 1985. The Foundation made 114 grants totaling $1,597,950 in the grant/fiscal year (September 2010 to August 2011). Grants ranged from $1,000 to $132,500. The median grant was $10,000 and the average grant was $14,017. Over 2,100 grants have been awarded to nearly 400 organizations over the last twenty-six years. The Foundation’s grantmaking increased by six percent in 2010-11, but remained below the level prior to the recent economic downturn. Assets were at $39 million in August 2011. The Foundation does not generate revenues through programs or gifts, so its grantmaking is tied to investment performance. After making grants to an average of 20 new organizations in the prior three years, grants were made to only four new grantees in 2009-10 and five new grantees in 2010-11. The focus narrowed to providing continuing, though frequently reduced, support to prior grant recipients. Grant applicants were encouraged to examine their operations, focus on programs providing the most impact, and consider eliminating marginal programs. The Foundation expanded its support for programs that provided multiple benefits. Good win-win examples are Starfire, Children’s Inc.’s Service Learning program, Xavier’s Summer Internship program, UC Med Mentors, Peaslee Neighborhood Center and the Urban Health Project … in addition to the benefits accruing to those who receive a service, those who provide a service learn the importance and value of giving. They have an opportunity to experience philanthropy. The Foundation also looked favorably on grant recipients that were successful in finding, engaging and making good use of volunteer support. The Foundation continued to promote its grant recipients and encouraged them to leverage their Dater grant as well. The Foundation’s web site featured success stories and photos from grant recipients, helping spread the word about the good work being done at these nonprofit organizations. News releases announcing new grants were posted regularly. Foundation grants to Cincinnati Public Radio and CET (WCET) provided an opportunity to use broadcast announcements to salute grant recipients, thereby helping them increase their visibility and attract additional support. The Foundation’s first full year using a web-based, online grant application process was a smashing success, based on feedback from grant applicants. Grant applicants advise that the MicroEdge Essential Gifts system has significantly reduced the time spent preparing and submitting grant applications and grant evaluation reports. Foundation directors find that they are able to be more thorough and efficient in reviewing applications, evaluations and other documents, which are available 24/7. For those unable to use the online system, the Foundation is able to accommodate. Also, the Preliminary Grant Proposal process remains in place for grant seekers to get preliminary feedback about a request lest they spend undue time on a formal application not likely to be approved. The Foundation’s web site features detailed information about its grantmaking process. The Foundation is committed to Enriching the Lives of Children. Its mission: to make grants to nonprofit organizations in the Greater Cincinnati area to carry out projects and programs that benefit children and focus in the areas of arts/culture, education, healthcare, social services and other community needs. Businessman and philanthropist Charles H.
